HERE'S HOW IT WORKS:

Throughout the ULJ ambassadors and alumni will have the opportunity to add their name to a final raffle, which will be drawn during the Nation Youth Summit. The rules are simple - for each event that you participate in or challenge that you complete AND that you report participating in or completing will add your name to the final draw (ex: If you go to and report your participation in 10 events, you will have your name entered 10x in the raffle). It is up to you to self-report your participation to increase your chances of winning a prize at the end. Reporting will take place here: ULJ Event Participation Form.

To make sure that people are participating in the events, each group must come up with a code word that they will share during their event. Ideally, this code word should connect back to your project, or ocean/freshwater conservation more generally.

We will have a total of 30 prizes available to win. Each person who enters will only be eligible to win one prize regardless of how many times their name is entered into the raffle. People's names will be collected through the form and assigned a number (I.E. If I entered my name four times, I might win if numbers 3, 34, 101, or 192 are drawn). On March 5th, during the National Youth Summit, we will use a random number generator (set between 1:N, N being the number of people who enter) to pick numbers at random. The winners will have the chance to pick a prize from the 30 available prizes with the first name drawn going first, the second – second, etc. The Ocean Bridge program will cover all costs associated with shipping items winners.

ALL ENTRIES FROM PERSONS AGE EIGHTEEN (18) OR YOUNGER MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A PARENTAL CONSENT FORM DESCRIBED ABOVE.

The chances of winning will depend on the number and caliber of entries, and on the decisions of the judging panel, which are discretionary and final. Only entrants who enter during the Entry Period, will be eligible to win. Any entry that fails to meet the submission criteria will not be entered into the Contest.
