

- Narwhals have a single long tooth that grows through their upper lip and protrudes out in front of them!
- Narwhals live in the artic and are sometimes eaten by polar bears.
- There appears to be no purpose for the narwhals distinctive long tooth.